

Greetings:

The Lake Chelan Wine Growers Association received some good news today about our AVA (American Viticulture Area) petition. See the attached email below that I received from Nancy Hutton our AVA Program Manager at the TTB (Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau).

As you can see from the email below, the Federal Register published the public notice on three proposed new AVAs, the Lake Chelan AVA is included. The closing date for all three will be October 14, 2008. Please pay close attention to the "Public Participation – Submitting Comments" section and encourage anyone who wishes to provide a supporting (or otherwise) comment.

After the close of the public comment period Nancy will review all comments. If the comments are generally favorable and raise no significant issues, then Nancy will start step 2, which is to prepare the (draft) final ruling. The draft will go through about the same lengthy review process (within TTB and through the Department of the Treasury) as did the public notice published today. Upon publication of the final ruling, 30 days thereafter, the proposed AVA will become an established AVA, complete with its own regulation number (27 CFR Part 9.???) and we will be in the AVA business!

This is a significant step on the way to getting this designation for the area. If approved, we will be the 10th AVA in Washington State!

Best Regards,
Judy Phelps
