

LAKE CHELAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

2018 BOARD OF DIRECTORS CANDIDATES

HOLLY BROWN

OWNER SIREN SONG WINERY

Holly has been involved and invested in the Chelan community since 2012 when they began developing the Siren Song Vineyard Estate and Winery. She is a local resident, a parent of a Chelan High School Student, a member of the Lake Chelan Wine Alliance Board, founding member and the Marketing Director of the Lake Chelan Wine and Jazz Festival. She is an employer of Chelan residents, students, and college interns. She has worked closely with other Chelan businesses to co-promote and cross pollinate ideas that have led to new marketing projects in Chelan, including the Lake Chelan Wine and Jazz Festival, the new Lake Chelan Wine Valley brochure, Crush events and other business projects. She believes our entire community benefits when businesses, wineries, and community members work together.

Holly brings 25 years of marketing management and executive leadership roles in start-ups, publicly held companies, advertising agencies, and franchises in Seattle and Silicon Valley. She is a Mentor at the Foster School of business at the University of Washington. She was the Group Account Director for Walt Disney Corporation.

ANDREA CLARK

GENERAL MANAGER
VACASA

Andrea Clark was born and raised in Lake Chelan, Washington. She left Chelan after high school to get her degree at the University of Washington and then moved back to Chelan for her career and to start a family. She worked as a labor and delivery nurse for 8 years and then joined the Vacasa team in Chelan as the general manager in 2015 and now manages Chelan, Leavenworth and Alaska. Prior to Vacasa, She also obtained her Real Estate Brokers License in 2014. Andrea has been an active member of the Chelan Rotary for the last 2 years. She has two, smart, talented boys in the Lake Chelan school district and a stepson in Denver Colorado and she is engaged to be married next year.

Andrea would like this opportunity because she simply loves Chelan, the businesses and the residents. She would welcome the chance to be apart of decisions that affect our beautiful quaint valley and the reason why the residents love living here and tourists continue to come back.

LESTER COOPER

LAKE CHELAN ROTARY CLUB

Lester was born in England and immigrated to Canada in January of 1965. He and his wife Carol moved to Seattle February 1971. Lester's work experience includes 21 years of service with PACCAR followed by a number of years working for News International and as an independent consultant in various process industries. Lester retired from General Electric as Director for International Business Development and Manufacturing Execution Systems. Lester and Carol bought their first home in Lake Chelan in 1992 and as he says gave up all "dark side rights" in April of 2005.

Lester is a past President for the Lake Chelan Chamber of Commerce. He is also Past President for the Chelan Rotary Club and former board member for the Lake Chelan Health and Wellness Foundation. He is also a Trustee for the Community Foundation of North Central Washington.

LEO MILLER

OWNER
ZIPPY DISPOSAL

Leo Miller was raised in Chelan and graduated from Chelan High School in 1954. He started in the orchard and real estate business in the 1970's. He built Zippy Disposal Service and Midtowner Motel into thriving businesses throughout his life. This past year, he fulfilled his life-long dream and opened a car museum for the Chelan Valley. He has done all of this with his loving and supportive wife Polly by his side.

KRYSTA WESTMORELAND

THE MEAT SHOP

Krysta recently relocated to the Lake Chelan Valley in 2017, along with her husband Gary and their dog Nala. Upon settling they opened The Meat Shop in Chelan and haven't been happier! Prior to The Meat Shop, Krysta worked in various marketing and event management roles for Brandeis University, The Exeter Area Chamber of Commerce and several non-profits in the Greater Boston Area. Krysta has thoroughly enjoyed becoming active in the community and is looking forward to becoming even more involved. When not in the shop, Krysta can be found volunteering with Rotary, supporting one of the areas many great wineries, or enjoying the outdoors.

JAY WITHERBEE

ICICLE BROADCASTING/KOZI RADIO

Jay Witherbee is the news director/morning host for KOZI radio. During the three decades he has lived in Chelan, Jay has owned several businesses and has worked with the Lake Chelan Chamber of Commerce and business community in multiple capacities, including elected city government. Jay's business involvement has included operations in both Chelan and Manson and he has working relationships with businesses and community members surrounding the greater Lake Chelan valley.

In the 1990s, Jay served for many years as a board member of the Lake Chelan Chamber of Commerce and was awarded Chamber Member of the Year. During this period, he was active in establishing community events and ensuring return on investment for Chamber members.

His interest in returning to the Chamber board now reflects not just his continued passion for the greater Lake Chelan community but also his interest in seeing the community thrive for the enjoyment and needs of its year-round citizens, investors and guests.
